Lemon Grove Tops Goal In United Fund Drive

Lemon Grove and Poway this week became the first two communities in San Diego County to reach their goals in the annual United Fund drive.

Meantime, volunteer campaigners from Lemon Grove met with other leaders in the countywide drive and launched an all-out "stretch effort" to end the campaign successfully by Thanksgiving.

Byron Netzley, who piloted the Lemon Grove Division in its goal-topping drive, said the all-out effort will be known as "Ten Days for Slowpokes."

Clair W. Burgener, United Fund president and campaign co-chairman, presided at Monday's meeting.

"The 'slowpokes' at whom we are aiming are not the contributors," Burgener said, "they're the volunteer campaigners who simply haven't completed their assignments."

Burgener emphasized that the record number of campaigners this year assured that no single assignment was too large.

"The money we have already received proves to us that the campaign goal can be reached, if the campaigners who have not completed their assignments will go out now and finish them" he said.

A final report meeting has been set for next Wednesday at El Cortez Hotel.

At its last report, the big countywide campaign has raised more than two million dollars toward it goal of $3,250,000. Burgener said considerable progress has been made since then.

Two local campaign groups were largely responsible for Lemon Grove's goal-topping effort. They are Residential, with $2,180, or 181.7 per cent of its quota, and Government and Education, $2,530, or 119.6 per cent of its goal. Other groups reported:

Commerce and Industry, $1,135, or 94.6 per cent; Business Firms, $6145 or 61.5 per cent; Professional, $545, or 60.6 per cent, and Individual Special Prospects, $260, or 32.5 per cent.

Locally, Netzley reported, campaigners in the Lemon Grove Division have raised $7,265, or 100.7 per cent of their goal of $7,216.

Supervisors Hold 13 Hearings on Trial Hearing Day

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—Thirteen public hearings were held Monday morning by the County Board of Supervisors in an experiment that may lead to a second meeting day each week.

Board members seemed pleased that so much business had been taken away from their Tuesday session, which also included eight public hearings.

Supervisor De Graff Austin has been pushing for the second meeting day. He is seeking to make a hearing day a regular part of the Board's activities, aside from the regular Tuesday meetings.

Burglar Hits Camera Store Thursday Night

The Lemon Grove Camera Shop, 7848 Broadway, Lemon Grove, was robbed last Thursday night of a used camera kit valued at $100, according to Bob Vaught, owner.

Vaught stated that he had entered the shop about 9:30 p.m. Thursday after attending a Lion's Club meeting. He was going to call his home from the store phone. He said that he had just picked up the phone when he heard a crash. He looked toward the front of the store where he saw a man reaching into a front display window and take the camera.

After taking the camera from the window, the man entered a car parked in front of the store and drove away. Vaught noted the car's license number and called the county sheriff's office.

Sheriff's deputies, working from the license number, arrested Donald Lewis Sanborn. At the preliminary hearing the suspect pleaded not guilty and is being held for trial.

Supervisors OK Patio Amendment

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — An amendment to the county zoning ordinance to permit more leeway in allowing outdoor roofed patios was approved on Monday by the County Board of Supervisors.

At the recommendation of the County Planning Commission, Supervisors approved a change in the law to allow such a roofed patio to occupy up to 50 per cent of the backyard area of a lot. Heretofore, persons seeking to build such a roofed patio within the backyard area had to apply to the planning commission for a variance.

LG Schools to Sell $615,000 in Bonds

Approval was given by the Lemon Grove school board last week for the sale of $615,000 worth of bonds and the money will be used on five school building projects.

The decision follows the program established by the board when it called for a bond election last month. At the election $535,000 was authorized. The remainder will come from bonds previously authorized. The county board of supervisors will be asked to sell the bonds and $300,000 of state funds will be added.

Included in the projects is a new wing at Palm Avenue junior high school which will increase the capacity to 550. A new classroom wing will be added at Monterey Heights school. Other additions will be at Mt. Vernon, Vista La Mesa, and San Miguel schools.

At the school board meeting the deadline for filing for the trustees' election was announced as March 17. Terms of three trustees will expire in April. The trustees are Bert Cosby, Harry W. Buckner, and Arthur Long.

Cult of Mediocrity Takes Freedoms Du Pont Exec Says

Unless three fundamental American freedoms are observed, potential national disaster is faced by this country, John A. Laberee, Pacific District manager of the Du Pont Company told the Lemon Grove Rotary Club Monday.

He said in a speech, "Three Imperatives for Tomorrow," that the three fundamental freedoms are: the freedom of the individual to achieve success in his own right; freedom of men to team their talents to tackle the difficult tasks; and, freedom of people to pool their savings, without fear of confiscation, to provide capital for large and long-term risks.

Laberee, who had charge of Du Pont's international public relations program in 1954, now is in charge of public relations for the west coast states, Hawaii, and Alaska. He writes and speaks in four languages.

Laberee pointed out that for the continued progress a freedom must draw its strength from its individuals. "We have all seen forces at work which tend to discourage their development. There has risen a cult of mediocrity which portrays as socially undesirable people who seek to excel," he said.

"This cult would submerge the head of the individual under the waves of the socialist sea. We must guard against (the view) which attaches a stigma to success."

Meyer Zung was program chairman. Arvid Johnson is the club's president.

Nuns Aid to Jewish Youngsters Theme of Grove Theatre Picture

"Conspiracy of Hearts," a poignant story of World War II that points up non-sectarian efforts made to help a persecuted people, is being screened for seven days starting Saturday at the Grove Theatre.

The story is that of the courage of a Catholic nun and a Jewish rabbi combining their efort to save little Jewish refugees in Nazi concentration camps.

The picture won the Box Office Ribbon Award this year in June.

LG Hunter Finds 'Body' In Desert

A Lemon Grove escrow service owner and his hunting companion were credited with having found the remains of a sailor who may have been slain last winter.

Roy Davis, owner of the Lemon Grove - La Mesa Escrow Service, 7850 Golden ave., Lemon Grove, and Wallace Maggs operator of the S.D. Pump Exchange, San Diego, found the skeleton of an unidentified male under a salt cedar tree while they were hunting quail in the desert 100 feet north of State Highway 98, near the East Highline canal crossing, 16 miles east of Calexico.

The Imperial County sheriff's department said the death "definitely was homicide." Two bullet holes were in the skull an inch apart.

Davis said he saw the sailor's uniform, "and first I thought it was just some old clothing Then I saw the skull back under the bush, and I saw a wrist bone sticking out of the uniform."

Animals had scattered and carried off some of the bones.

There were no identification papers or personal effects in the uniform. Officers said this was good evidence of robbery as a motive for the killing.

A broken identification tag chain was around the victim's neck. Markings on the uniform indicated the victim was a seaman apprentice.

A heavy sweater the victim was wearing led officers to believe he was killed during the winter.

Meanwhile sheriff's deputies and naval intelligence officers are tracking down the slim clues.

"We don't have much to work with but I think we may be able to identify him," said Sheriff Herbert Hughes of Imperial County who is also Imperial County coroner.

The 11th Naval District is exploring dental records which will help identify the victim. If the victim was a sailor absent without leave whose whereabouts are unknown, he could have been stationed anywhere outside the 11th District.

Davis said he and his companion got no quail during their hunting session.

Water Pollution Board Threatens Court Action

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — Indignant Spring Valley property owners, backed up by the Regional Water Pollution Control Board, Monday asked the County Board of Supervisors to order an immediate stop to all annexations to the Spring Valley Sanitation District and all connections to the system. The step was sought to cut down odors in Spring Valley and reduce the flow of effluents complained about in Sweetwater Valley.

The Board, after listening to graphic descriptions to the odors resulting from the present over-loading of the disposal plant, promised an early decision on its future policy.

But the Board also failed to take up the challenge of Charles Lambert, chairman of the citizens committee on the area's sanitation problems, for immediate action.

"I'd like to pin this Board down, if it's in my realm, to get it to decide today against any more annexations or connections," Lambert said.

He got no takers, although he told Supervisors Spring Valley residents have to burn candles in the bedrooms to overcome sewer odors at night.

Those who spoke at the hearing were evidently trying not to hurt anybody's feeling. At the same time, references were made to contradictory stories from various county departments and the failure to get cooperation from the county.

Mrs. Paul Horner, who said she and her husband are building a home in the affected area, told Supervisors, "It seems most of you are sleeping through all this, except for Mr. Bird."

Lambert told the Board that his group "got nothing from the county except statistics that don't add up."

The ire of those who want action from the county was also directed at the subdividers of the area, whom they accused of going on building new homes and adding them to the already over-loaded sanitation system.

The Spring Valley people said they feared the subdividers would persuade the county, which operates the Spring Valley Sanitation District, to increase the capacity of the present disposal plant and ignore the solution for the over-loading problem backed by the Regional Water Pollution Control Board, which is to build a line down Sweetwater Valley and connect with the Metropolitan System to be built by the City of San Diego.

Lambert said any expansion of the present plant would cost $300,000. The district now has $250,000 in its treasury, and Lambert insisted that this should be saved for the $1,000,000 that the sewer line down the valley is to cost.

Dennis O'Leary, executive officer for the Regional Water Pollution Control Board, told Supervisors his board would oppose expansion of the Spring Valley plant. He said requirements for the purity of effluent from the plant were going to be up-graded, as they were established in 1952, when the area around the plant and below it was rural.

The new standards would require drinking water purity, O'Leary declared. He said doubling the present plant capacity would not be sufficient. "If you tripled it, you would be only approaching what you would need," he said. "But you would have to quadruple it at least, and that would be expensive."

O'Leary added that his board would not oppose any spending on the present plant to relieve

Sups Stop Annexations

The Board of Supervisors Tuesday ended all annexations to the Spring Valley Sanitation District and ordered the Department of Public Works to spend $100,000 to $140,000 to expand the district's treatment plant capacity 50 per cent.

The Board had decided the day before to put off any change of policy for 30 days.

the DIMMER VIEW

by MAX GOODWIN

A frightening booklet attacking communism is being circulated by Fred C. Koch, a Kansas businessman.

Some of the 18 points he builds in the 40 pages of the booklet are hard to believe but most of the points are hard-hitting and proper.

Most of his beliefs are backed up by pretty good documentation and shows a tremendous amount of research to have gone into the study.

There are several points he makes that are worthy of reproducing because they are from a fresh viewpoint and are so well put. . .and so true.

Item: You can attack communism without much fear, in fact some communists may join you - but if you attack particular communists in government, the roof will fall in on you.

Item: Socialism is the precursor of communism. Democracy cannot exist if the government owns all the property. A communist take-over in a socialist country would be no trick at all.

Item: There will never be peace in the world as long as communism exists. We are at war to the death, and not of our choosing. Unhappily few people are aware of this fact.

Item: Communism is not a disease of poverty - it is a disease of the mind. The children of the very rich are far more susceptible to it than the children of the poor.

Item: The communists intend to take us over by degrees - each time a crises arises we make a concession to communism as an alternative to dreadful atomic warfare. Each will be a step to surrender, although at the time it will not appear to be decisive. Eventually our will to resist is destroyed.

Item: It is not the communists who are destroying America. America is being destroyed by citizens who will not listen, are not informed, and will not think. The uninformed are easily misinformed. Americans are misinformed today to an extent that is unbelievable.

Item: Popular fallacies - that by concessions to the Russian communists they will "understand" us; that there will be a revolt in Russia; that Red China and Red Russia are going to have a falling out, and Russia will ally herself with us; that the Red Army has anything to say in the power struggle in the USSR; that peaceful coexistence is possible.

Grossmont HS District

EMR Program Outlined At El Cajon Meeting

Nicholas Mallek, director-counselor in the program for mentally retarded pupils in the Grossmont Union High School District, outlined the program last week at Madison Avenue Elementary School, El Cajon. Mallek, who has worked with a similar program with the San Diego County Schools, presented the staff of teachers, and each spoke about the phase of the EMR program he teaches.

Parents present at the meeting were from the International Council for Exceptional Children, the Parent Group for Severely Mentally Retarded Children, and the EMR Parent Group for Elementary and Junior High Schools. These people have children in the schools which feed into the Grossmont District EMR program.

Mallek explained that he and Robert Kujellis, a teacher in the program, last summer worked out a curriculum now in use.

He also explained that the general philosophy in the department is that the pupils they work with are "normal" students with unique needs. These children need specially trained teachers, special materials, and individual instruction in small classes. Teachers who work with the mentally retarded are required to hold credentials above the regular teaching credential and must earn 26 units to obtain it.

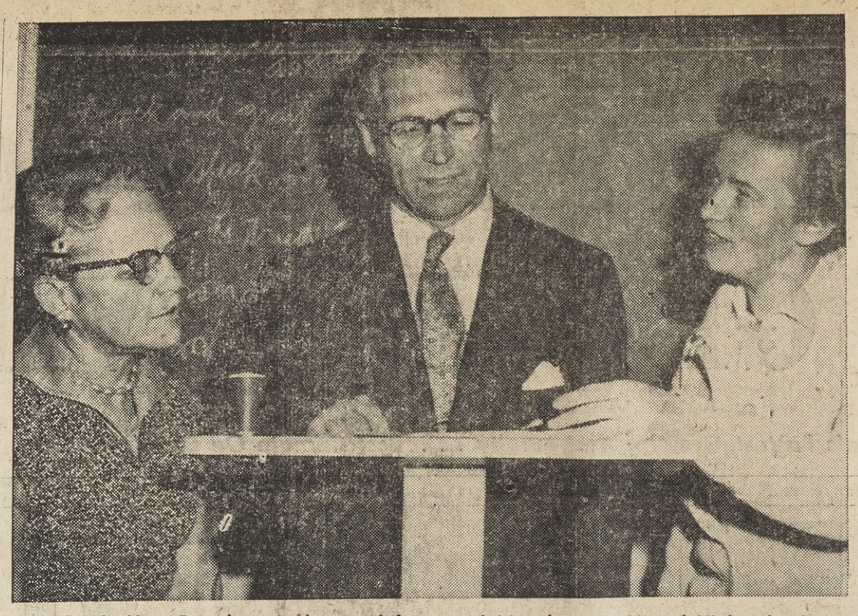
Emphasis in the program is placed on the likenesses between the mentally retarded and the other students rather than the differences between them. This approach work toward the main goal which is to held this student to take his place in the community as a socially adjusted, self-supporting citizen.

Kujellis, who worked with EMR students in La Mesa Junior High School and Grossmont High School, is in charge of the work-experience phase, where students will be placed on the job for from one to six hours a day in the community, as soon as parents agree the students are ready. There are 28 students working now on the campus at jobs adapted to them.

Mrs. Anne Weber, who previously worked with EMR students in San Bernardino and Redlands, teaches English and math. A theme a week is one of the requirements in English.

Mrs. Edith Henry, who has worked with students in mentally retarded programs since 1955, teaches math, social problems, and homemaking. Edward Slagle and Carol Lebeck teach part time in shop courses and arts and crafts.

The ERM program is set up by the State of California and must conform to State standards and regulations, Mallek also said.



PREPARING—Mrs. Dorothea Anderson, left, J. Harold Goss, and Mrs. Anne von der Mehden work on unit material to be covered by the new closed circuit classroom television in their junior English classes during the next few weeks. The new system was initiated at Mt. Miguel High School November 7. Mt. Miguel is now one of more than 800 schools receiving instruction through the medium of closed circuit television.

Closed TV Started at Mt. Miguel

The use of closed circuit classroom television was initiated at Mount Miguel high school, Monday, November 7.

J. Harold Goss, Mrs. Anne von der Mahden, and Mrs. Dorothea Anderson constitute the teaching team using this new method in an English course directed to 11th grade students.

Goss, head of the school's English department, demonstrated the closed circuit apparatus to visitors from the Grossmont district.

Melvin C. Grant, principal of Mount Miguel, remarked, "The use of television will improve the quality of the classroom instruction and will better prepare students for college." The new system will also offer such advantages as more time for individual attention by teachers, as well as more interest on the part of the students.

The system, which is in use throughout the country, now furnishes instruction to 800 school systems, with over 700,000 enrolled students.

As Goss pointed out, the system offers "a promise of a breakthrough in teacher time."

Parents and interested members of the community will have an opportunity to learn more about the use of closed-circuit television with Junior English classes at Mount Miguel high school this evening, November 17, at 7:30.

Dr. Leon Lessinger, consultant from the Grossmont district staff will also be present at the meeting, as will Melvin C. Grant, principal of Mount Miguel, and Mrs. Vela Gwin, junior counselor.

Grant commented, "Any changes in the curriculum of the school, in line with our policy, will be thoroughly explained to our parents. This meeting will keep our parents aware of one of the latest methods used in teaching. . . . the use of television. The goals and objectives, as well as the possible merits of this system, will be explained by Miguel's team teachers at the Thursday meeting."

The post office here will not have the revolutionary, new Speed Mail devices, but some are to be installed in some of the big mail centers in the United States soon.

The electronics device opens a sealed letter, unfolds it, reads it, transmits it to the proper city. The receiving machine reproduces the transmitted letter, folds it, and addresses it properly, then seals it - all in three seconds.

These processes are done in a sealed cabinet which assures postal patrons the privacy he has been led to expect.

The Speed Mail cabinet has added privacy features. When a person stands too close to other than the feed-in end, it sets off bells, which call attention to the fact.

The device was developed by Stomberg Carlson and was unveiled the other day in San Diego at a press showing. This was held simultaneously with a similar event in Washington which was being observed by President Eisenhower and Postmaster General Summerfield.

The device accepts and transmits letters that resemble the V-mail letters of WWII. There is this important difference, however. No human eye, other than the addressee may scan the contents of the epistle.

The sending device scans the letter with a TV-type tube. The letter has faced-up and opened. The image is then sent by microwaves to a similarly sealed cabinet at the proper mail center, where the image is fixed on a sensitized sheet of paper, after which it is folded, enveloped, sealed, and addressed.

What happens to the original letter for all this studied privacy, you might well ask?

This astute machine, bless its shiny little heart of chrome gears, stacks up the original letters in a "fixed number batch." If the receiving machine sends back a signal which says a letter is missing in the batch, or the transmission was garbled, the machine puts the "batch" through again. When the machine gets the signal that all is right with the batch, the cannister into which the batch of letters was contained, dumps them into a built-in paper shredder.

It is then that the original letter again sees the light of day. . .but now it is as confetti.

The machine will supply a tremendous amount of service in its speedy three-seconds-per-letter cycle.

Frankly, we think they are already using this speedy device for the monthly bills we receive.

If you haven't given much thought to Christmas, maybe you'd better start right now because it's later than you think.

How do we arrive at this amazing decision? By the first sprinkling of letters to Santa Claus, which are given to us by jolly old St. Nick himself.

Each year we publish as many of these letters as we are able to handle and it may very well be that this is to be a banner year since the first two letters arrived far earlier than usual. They came from a brother and sister.

The letters read:

Dear Santa Claus:

If you ask for three will you get two? I want a flying fox, jet propelled airliner, street sprinkler works, dig ditches with dragline, truck and digger, deluxe truck, sports boat, and farm stake and horse trailer and truck for service calls.

You only have to give me as much as you can when you come to my house.

Dear Santa Claus:

My name is Arlene and sister name is Dinane. I am 4 and sissy is 2. Here is what I want for Xmas. A candy pig bank; a baby buggy, and a bike. Please bring Diane a baby buggy, some panties, and a jacket.

Recovery, Inc. To Celebrate 2nd Anniversary

Recovery, Inc., a psychiatric movement, is celebrating its second anniversary in San Diego County by presenting a public panel demonstration and with the opening of two new weekly group meetings.

One group will meet weekly starting Wednesday, November 16, at 8 p.m. in the Foothills Methodist Church, 4031 Avocado dr., Spring Valley. Group leader will be Mrs. Beulah L'Heureux, 4083 Nabal dr., La Mesa. Another group is meeting each Thursday from 9 to 11 a.m. in the Santa Sophia hall, 9800 San Juan st., Spring Valley. This group leader is Ann Colbrim, 1927 Howard st., San Diego.

Anyone caring to attend these meetings may contact the two leaders or J. H. Lane, at P.O. Box 307, El Cajon, Calif.

Recovery, Inc., is a non-profit, non-denominational organization operating in all the States and Canada. It was founded by the late Dr. Abraham Low, a Chicago neurologist and psychiatrist of national reputation, to help those persons with nervous tensions and symptoms, by means of "spotting"—a technique of self-analysis.

In San Diego the organization was originally sponsored by the Catholic Casework Bureau. Since that time, six groups have been added and this month marks the opening of the two new ones. Meeting places are being provided by Catholic and Protestant churches of the area.

the existing situation, but he also said that he though "engineering ingenuity" could help with the present problem.

O'Leary also favored a flat order from Supervisors to deny all future annexations and connections.

Supervisor David W. Bird said that the county would be subject to suits if it denied all connections. He asked O'Leary what should be done when a property owner in the district found his septic tank was no longer working and the health department told him to connect to the sewer or move out of his house.

O'Leary agreed that such connections should be permitted. But he told Bird that if the county was worried about being sued by subdividers, it should also consider that it would have to "face the regional board in court" if it persisted in its present policy.

"Why didn't you go to court against the City of San Diego?" asked Bird. "Was it too big?"

O'Leary answered that the city and his board had worked together for a permanent solution, that suing the city would probably have ended the overall metropolitan plans approved by voters on November 8.

"But the smell has been there for 20 years," said Bird.

O'Leary replied that communities were only beginning to realize the importance of their sanitation problems.

On discussion of abandoning the present Spring Valley plant, Supervisor De Graff Austin said, "It's news to me. I never heard until this morning that we are going to do away with this plant."

Jean L. Vincenz, public works administrator, said the line down the Sweetwater Valley could not be built for two years. He declared that some steps could be taken to add to facilities at the existing plant, spending $100,000 or $125,000.

Lambert called this a reversal of previous statements by Vincenz. "That's a change of heart, I believe," he said. He added that any expansion would cost $250,000 and be a waste of money.

"Politicians take the negative attitude toward doing away with this plant," Lambert said. "If you spend $250,000 on the plant and then have to spend $1,000,000 on the line, that's not good arithmetic." He said it would affect the bond issue vote.

Mrs. Horner made a similar plea. "We're afraid we might get turned down two or three times on the bonds before they get passed," she said. "The whole area will become a cess pol. That seems to be clear. I can see it, and I'm only a stupid housewife."

Mrs. Betty Seymour spoke in favor of expansion of the plant, saying a shutdown on connections "will absolutely stop progress in Spring Valley." She added that she hoped any shutdown would be only temporary.

The hearing, which was the result of a petition for annexation of half an acre to the district, was terminated with the Board asking Vincenz to report on how many houses are under construction in the district and how many existing homes are not now connected to the system.

Vincenz also said he expected to have a decision within 30 days from the City of San Diego on what it will do to help with financing the line down Sweetwater Valley.

Supervisors then promised that they would hold a conference with city representatives and the Regional Water Pollution Control Board when they have the report asked from Vincenz and after a decision from the City of San Diego.

The annexation sought by Edwin R. and Irene Barr, for land just off Garfield street, near Panorama drive, on the edge of La Mesa, was then approved by Supervisors.

Flag ceremonies were given by Cub Den 310, under the guidance of their leader, Mr. Dick Cole.

SV JR. HIGH

"Opening Doors to New Frontiers in Speech Arts" was the theme for the Spring Valley Junior High School PTA meeting November 16, in the school auditorium. Mrs. Lucille Holmes, 8th grade department head, and Miss Lois Smith, 7th grade department head, prepared the program.

There will be no PTA meeting in December. However, the traditional Christmas program by the students will be held December 14-15.

AVONDALE

After Den 1 of Cub Scout Pack 357, led the flag salute at Avondale's PTA meeting this past Tuesday, Dr. Kathryn Bilterman, principal of Murray Manor Elementary School, gave a talk on ways of helping your children to learn.

Following this came the surprise of the evening, when a huge birthday cake was brought in and presented to the association by Mrs. Ned Barbara. This was the first birthday of the Avondale PTA, and all present enjoyed helping with the celebration.

Cub Scouts of Pack 329, and Girl Scouts of Troop 990 then performed authentic Indian dances, under the direction of Jack Leezy, Mrs. Frederick Malek, and Mrs. Carl Mohr.

KGB Gets Power Increase Permission

San Diego radio station KGB has increased its power from 1,000 to 5,000 watts, station president Marion R. Harris announced.

The boost, granted three and one-half years after the original application was made, allows KGB to transmit a non-directional signal of 5,000 watts providing clear reception to all areas of San Diego County. The increase in power will become effective about January 1, after new equipment has been installed.

The station plans to replace its Pickwick Hotel transmitter and towers, a downtown landmark for 32 years.

Lutheran Church in Spring Valley To Have First Service Sunday

The Cathedral Choir of First Lutheran Church, San Diego, will sing the anthem at the Festive First Service of the Lutheran Church in Spring Valley, Rev. John S. Kerr, pastor of the new church, announced today.

The first service of the new congregation is slated for Sunday, November 20, at 11 a.m. at the Spring Valley Community Center, 9050 Memory Lane.

The anthem selected by the Cathedral Choir to sing on this occasion is "Praise We Sing to Thee," by Haydon. The choral group is under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Wolf.

The Lutheran Church in Spring Valley is a newly established congregation of the United Lutheran Church in America, the largest Lutheran group in the United States, with over 2½ million members.

The public is invited to attend the first service on November 20, Pastor Kerr announced. A coffee hour will follow the service.

Words of Paul Form Church Text

"Glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's." This exhortation of the apostle Paul to the Corinthians is the Golden Text of the Lesson-Sermon on "Soul and Body" in all Christian Science churches Sunday (I Corinthians 6:20).

The need to glorify God in our body as well as in our soul and spirit is accented by Jesus when he healed the man with the unclean spirit. Mark's Gospel relates that "Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him. And they were all amazed" (1:25-27).

The Bazaar is the Christian Women's Fellowship's one big money raising event of the year and the profits go toward the many dedicated efforts of the women of the church. The address is 4210 Massachusetts, La Mesa.

"GOD'S WORD"

The words of the Bible fall into our hearts as the seed of eternal life. When we believe the message of salvation through Jesus Christ, this word germinates and brings into being a new life in us. When this new life has come to our hearts, then we are children of God.

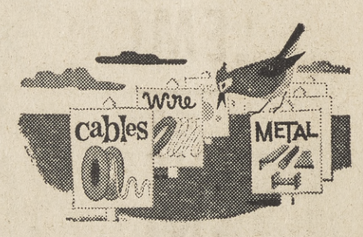
WHAT'S DOING

Sid Mansfield, your telephone manager in Lemon Grove

Maintaining phone lines is a never ending job! To keep phone lines ready for your calls, men in Telephone Patrol planes fly along hundreds of miles of phone cable nearly every day. They're on the lookout for construction work or other hazards that might damage underground or overhead lines. They warn anyone on the ground working near cables by dropping notes or calling to them over the plane's loudspeaker system.

Other cable patrols on foot, in trucks and snow vehicles travel along phone lines to spot hazards before they cause trouble. It seems like a lot of work, but this is the surest way to keep your telephone service ready for you, whenever you need it.



Cultivating a "telephone farm" is the unusual project of some Bell Telephone Laboratories engineers. It's an experiment with new materials for underground telephone equipment — the "plants" they've buried are pieces of wire, cable, and metals. These will be dug up periodically to see which ones are in the best condition.

The "telephone farm" will help our engineers find the best materials for a faster and less expensive way to put telephone equipment underground. And it will mean another new saving to help your telephone dollar go further.

ARE YOU OR ONE OF YOUR FRIENDS A PROGRAM CHAIRMAN? Entertaining and educational films are available to you, free of charge, for group showings. One of the more recent films added to our library is "SECONDS FOR SURVIVAL." This excellently produced 30 minute film graphically and dramatically illustrates our nation's defense network and the part the Bell System plays in it.

Another film soon to be made available called "THE BIG BOUNCE" takes you behind the scenes with Bell Laboratory and government scientists from the start to the orbiting of the huge balloon used to bounce telephone messages from outer-space to the ground station. These and many other films may be easily obtained by calling HOpkins 6-3200, your telephone business office.

TRADE-IN — Herbert Lowe of Lowe's Toggery, 3321 Imperial, Lemon Grove, holds one of the dresses he has taken in as a trade-in for new clothing at his store. The clothes he is taking in as trades will be sent to needy families through the organization, "Operation Handclasp."

LG Clothier Sets Trade-In Policy To Help Those Less Fortunate

What does it mean "share to share?"

To Herbert Lowe of Lowe's Toggery, 3321 Imperial, Lemon Grove, it means the trade-in of old clothing for new so that the old can be distributed to those less fortunate than others.

Lowe is working on a project supervised by an organization named "Operation Handclasp." He is helping to collect old clothing for the underprivileged people, primarily those of the Chinese Full Gospel Church of Hong Kong, China.

To help out this cause, Lowe, through his business, is taking in old clothing as trade-in for purchase of new wearing apparel. He is offering a 10 per cent discount for clothes that are traded in for new clothes at his store.

"We are fortunate to have all we need and more in this country," Lowe said. "Here is an opportunity to share with our fellow man."

LONG BEACH, Calif (Spcl)—George H. Feil, fireman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Feil of 2666 Buena Vista, Lemon Grove, appeared in the filming of a television show with actor Ernest Borgnine recently while serving aboard the anti-submarine warfare support aircraft carrier USS Kearsarge operating out of Long Beach.

The film personality narrated the program which is scheduled for release in early 1961 in commemoration of the 50th anniversary of Naval Aviation.

William T. Julian

COAST OF CALIFORNIA (Spcl)—William T. Julian, commissaryman second class, USN, of 7070 Broadway, Lemon Grove, serving aboard the tank landing ship USS Plumas County, participated in an amphibious exercise, known as "Operation Pack Mule," from October 24 to November 5 off the Coast of California.

Matadors Defeat Eagles 37-20; Freeman's 24 Points Paces Win

by Bill Ott Jr.

Mt. Miguel remained in contention for the Metro League Southern Division Championship after romping over Granite Hills, 37-20 in the Mt. Miguel Homecoming last Thursday on the Matador field.

Duane Freeman paced the Matadors with four touchdowns, on runs of 62, 60, 4 and 4 yards. Freeman's first touchdown, going 62 yards, was on the first play of the game.

The Matadors handled the Roman Eagles with ease as they rolled up a 31-6 halftime score. Mt. Miguel's regulars saw little action in the second half, as the reserves battled the visitors.

Granite Hills scored their two remaining touchdowns in the fourth stanza against the Miguel reserves.

Wayne Carroll paced the visitors scoring attack with 8 points followed by Tom Roth and Jim Gibson who each tallied a touchdown.

Halfbacks Lanny Morlan and John McQuaide scored the remaining 12 points for the Matadors.

Mt. Miguel faces Grossmont Friday night at 8 p.m. in Aztec Bowl at San Diego State in what could decide undisputed second place. If El Capitan defeats Helix, the winner of the Mt. Miguel - Grossmont tilt would then be tied with the Highlanders for the division championship. The Foothillers have never beaten the Matadors, and will be out to grab a victory. Mt. Miguel fans will sit on the east side of the field and will use the east parking lot at San Diego State.

Ex-Matador Joins Pepperdine Frosh Basketball Team

Cyrus Wayne Stephens, a 1960 graduate of Mt. Miguel High School in San Diego, is one of 15 boys out for the 1960-61 Freshmen basketball team at Pepperdine College in Los Angeles.

Frosh coach John Friend is working the 6-0 Stephens at a guard and forward position in preparation for a tough 20-game schedule which will pit the Riplets against most of the top colleges in Southern California.

Honored as captain and best defensive player while in high school, Stephens is majoring in Psychology and Religion at Pepperdine.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Stephens, presently live at 1820 Ensenada st., Lemon Grove.

Helix Edges Hilltop In Close Contest

The Helix Highlanders needed a fourth quarter touchdown to overcome a 13-7 Hilltop lead and edge the Lancers, 14-13. The triumph assured the Highlanders of at least a tie for the Metro League Southern Division Championship.

Bill Burnett's two PAT's after the Helix touchdown proved to be the decisive measure as the Hilltoppers battled for an upset.

The high flying Highlanders face the El Capitan Vaqueros Friday night in the Helix Stadium in the league finale. El Capitan, playing the Northern Division dropped their first league game to Grossmont with a 20-19 margin. The Vaqueros had one previous loss, that being to Mt. Miguel in the Metro practice game series.

Helix is hoping to have halfbacks Jim White and Brian Funk in the line-up against the Vaqueros. Both have been out with knee injuries.

READING SKILL?
FOR YOU OR YOUR CHILD
Here's The Answer!

UNKNOWN to parents and teachers, undetected reading disabilities may be a chief factor underlying low grades, emotional problems and lack of financial success.

Diagnostic test services of the El Camino Reading Clinic probe beneath superficial reading skills to provide the answer to parents and adults who want to know.

To meet the problem where it exists, the Clinic provides a tri-level program. Students progress at their own pace and individually, in groups no larger than four.

REMEDIAL — For the student having difficulty in school.
DEVELOPMENTAL — For students of any age not working to capacity.
ACCELERATED—For the superior student and adult needing a challenge to higher achievement.*
*Special rates for churches, community service and professional groups. Details on request.

If you want to be sure your child is reading as he should, arrange for a diagnostic testing appointment now!
